Who Butchered Bryan?

The butchering of Bryan in the Nebraska primaries is as easily traceable to its source as the famous killing of Cock Robin, and the witnesses are more numerous.

Bryan was slaughtered in his home state by the adherents of Wilson, and there are no sighs of regret echoing from the White House because of the result. Bryan made Wilson four years, to be sure, but there has never been a minute when Wilson felt truly grateful. On the contrary, he always chafed under the consideration of Bryan's power in the party; and he was glad when the occasion permitted him to raise a false issue upon which Bryan left the cabinet. The contemplation of Bryan in the democratic national convention of 1916 has never been a pleasing prospect to Wilson, for he has vivid knowledge of Bryan's ability to sway conventions to his own manner of thinking. And Bryan's manner of thinking is not Wilson's manner, nor are Bryan's principles the principles of Wilson. We do not doubt that the quiet tip was sent from the white house to Nebraska to defeat Bryan.

Bryan, accordingly, has been defeated—but only for a seat in the St. Louis convention. The treachery of the Wilson men in Nebraska has temporarily overcome the unsuspecting friends of Bryan, but the latter will be more alert next time. Their hour will come when they go to the polls in November. They will not forget who butchered Bryan this spring—and the fall killing which they will make will be gratifying gory.

Lozier in Randolph County

Ralph F. Lozier delivered the address to the graduating class at the commencement exercises of the Clarke high school on the evening of April 24th. The Clark Chronicle speaks of Mr. Lozier's address in the following complimentary manner:

"The class address delivered by Hon. Ralph Lozier of Carrollton was one of the best constructed, most inspiring and eloquent ever delivered to a graduating class. Any man or woman, young or old, who heard this excellent address left the graduating exercises inspired to live on a higher plane and to put forth their best efforts in life. The ideal of success, as presented by Mr. Lozier, could only be the conception of a man with the highest personal ideals—of a man who has grasped the deeper meanings of life. Those who had thought that their life was a failure should have heard this inspiring message and they would have left with a smile on their lips and a grim determination to continue the battle with renewed vigor. No one will question the fact that Mr. Lozier is one of Missouri's most eloquent public speakers, a man with a message that it would be worth while for every Missourian to hear. He is a strong and convincing speaker, a man with a wonderful personality, and such a type of a man would not be amiss in the legislative halls of our national government."

The Moberly Monitor, whose editor, Hon. G. F. Rothwell, was present, speaks of the address as follows:

"The class address by Hon. Ralph Lozier was a classic and was listened to with deep attention and evident pleasure.

Mr. Lozier is a scholarly and polished orator. He made a splendid literary address and the best people of the county were there to hear him."

Predicts Mr. Dickey's Election

A well informed business man in Kansas City who has been interested in politics as a promoter of republican victory from conviction and is a capable judge of the trend of sentiment is quoted as having said a few days ago that if Walter S. Dickey is nominated for United States senator by the republicans, as seems now assured, he will carry Jackson county by 10,000 over his principal opponent, which result will guarantee his election and that of the entire republican state ticket. The republicans of Missouri are this year looking for candidates who will add strength to the ticket.

Shot For His Mother's Letter

Linneus Bulletin.

A most affecting glimpse into the savagery of war is told in a letter written home by a young lady from Browning, Linn county, who is a student in New York City. The young lady has a girl friend whose brother had gone to Germany on business and was about to return home. His mother wrote him to hurry back, and thoughtlessly added the injunction, "Kill the kaiser before you come." Of course the letter was read by the authorities, with the result that the young man was arrested and summarily shot, and now the boy's mother has a memory that will cause her suffering every minute of her life.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

The wonderfully beautiful scenery along this new route to Geyserland has already won everlasting admiration from the enthusiastic tourists who have traversed its picturesque course. Experienced travelers who know what's what agree that in the sustained beauty and grandeur of the scenery it far excels the Park itself, except in one particular—the Grand Canyon of the Yellowstone River. The route lies through the "Buffalo Bill" country, up the great Canyon of the Shoshone River and across the evergreen-covered mountains of the Absaroka Range via beautiful Sylvan Pass. Come in and let me help you plan your trip to Yellowstone. Burlington trains run direct to the Park.
